INDIANA OBITUARY.

Robert Horton, Former New Castle Man, Killed in Colorado.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Robert Horton, of Cripple Creek, Colo., who is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gaddis, was shocked yesterday by receiving a telegram from Cripple Creek announcing the death of her husband by some accident in the mines, the nature of which was not stated. Mr. Horton went to Cripple Creek a few years ago and struck it rich, and at the time of his death was an extensive mine owner. He was about thirty-five years of age. Mrs. Gaddis, a brother-in-law, left today for the West to bring home the body.

James C. Peed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Aug. 19.—James C. Peed, one of the best known citizens of Henry county, died at his home here this morning aged seventy-six years. Death was due to dropsy and heart disease. He was a brother of E. H. Peed, ex-superintendent of the Indiana State Penitentiary. He left several daughters, Mrs. W. S. Kaufman, of Richmond, Mrs. M. H. Peed, of Cripple Creek, and Mrs. M. H. Peed, of Cripple Creek. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian church in this city.

Other Indiana Necrology.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 19.—The body of James Cunningham, a well-known Philadelphian, arrived here this afternoon. Post Lee, No. 18, Spanish-American war volunteer, will be the bridegroom in a funeral to-morrow afternoon in St. Mary's cemetery. Bugler Thomas Degnan, who sounded lay over the graves of Cunningham's body to the grave before James Cunningham was a member of Company Thirty-third Volunteers and enlisted here in 1896.

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Aug. 19.—Marion Wright, a well-known citizen of this city, is dead in this city as the result of a sunstroke and resulting paralysis received several days ago. He was forty years old, and left a widow and four children.

CLAIRVOYANT'S SHARP PRACTICE.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 19.—An alleged clairvoyant giving the name of Riches has swindled a young woman, whose name is refused for publication, out of $1,200. It was money inherited from her father's estate. She says she was hypnotized and was induced to draw the money out of the bank in order to wear it in a chamois-skin purse about her neck for a charm to work a spell. This having been done, she was induced to share a safety deposit box in the White National Bank with Riches. He left town, ostensibly to go to the country, on Friday, and when he did not return the girl became alarmed. She called on the attorney of her father, who gave the accused man a hearing before a justice, and he was remanded to jail to await the legal action of a higher tribunal.

Breman has resided in the vicinity of Dalton City over forty years, and is now about sixty years of age. The Upendahl family is highly respected and prominent. Upendahl, a brother of Breman's, was a victim, being a member of the Illinois Legislature, now on his way to Charleston, S. C., as a member of the committee on the Illinois building at the Southern exposition. Breman found Miss Upendahl alone and forcibly assaulted her. An angry crowd of citizens saw him off to jail to-day, but made no violent demonstration.

Boone County Much Benefited.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

THORNTOWN, Ind., Aug. 19.—Drenching rains have been falling in this vicinity for two days. Though entirely too late to benefit the larger portion of the corn crop, yet the rains are greatly benefiting the cereal on bottom and black lands. Farmers expect a good wheat crop and very heavy hay crop. A number of the late crops of corn and beans are taking a fresh start, and there will be a fair crop for the canneries. The present rains are the first in nearly two months in this county.

On the Just and the Unjust.

RUSSIAVILLE.—Several good showers fell on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, breaking a drought that had lasted from June 24. The benefit to crops will be very great. The corn on the lowlands and on black ground. That on the highlands is practically all saved. The wheat crop of potatoes. The village was full of farmers when the first shower fell, and the rain was hailed with cheering as long as the rain lasted.

MUNCIE.—The drought has been completely broken in most parts of Delaware county by the heavy rains of Sunday and Monday. The potato crop will be most benefited, but corn and wheat are also greatly helped. A number of farmers will have almost a full crop, where ground has been rich. The rains are too far advanced to be helped.

ANGOLA.—All this part of the State had copious rains on Sunday and Sunday night, suddenly at his hotel in Cincinnati. The benefit to crops will be very great. The corn on the lowlands and on black ground. That on the highlands is practically all saved. The wheat crop of potatoes. The village was full of farmers when the first shower fell, and the rain was hailed with cheering as long as the rain lasted.

LIBERTY.—The long-continued drought in the Whitewater valley has been broken by heavy rains on Saturday night and Sunday. The benefit to crops will be very great. Will Give a Thousand Dollars.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Aug. 19.—Governor W. T. Durbin spent the Sabbath in Anderson, his home, and gave an impetus to the movement now on foot of the Merchants' Association and Commercial Club of this city to raise a factory fund. Governor Durbin is very loyal to Anderson and has lent his aid in its largest efforts, including the Anderson foundry and machine works, the Diamond Paper Company, the Sefcor Manufacturing Company. Governor Durbin made a proposition to be one of fifty men in the city who would give $100 to such fund and further agreed to find another who would do the same thing. A mass meeting was held Wednesday night at the city hall to consider the matter.

Innovation in Farmers' Institutes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

HAGERSTOWN, Ind., Aug. 19.—An innovation in Farmers' Institute work will be introduced in this county this fall. Two institutes will be held, one at Centerville and the other at Economy. At each a woman lecturer will be present to set forth the new plan of Professor Latta, looking to the establishment of a women's agricultural department at Purdue University. The lecturer will explain the purpose and plan of the institute, and will endeavor to arouse the interest of farmers' wives and daughters in the movement to the extent of securing a large attendance at least the opening session of the new school.

Will See for His Salary.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COVINGTON, Ind., Aug. 19.—Dr. J. T. Towey, originally a Democrat, but ousted by the Democratic Council of this city from the city health officer because he voted the Republican ticket last campaign, will sue the city for his salary on the ground that the health officer's position is a permanent one and that he was removed except for incompetency. Dr. Towey was appointed to succeed Dr. Towey, and he claims that he was removed for incompetency. Dr. Towey has the better side of the case.

Woman Handled a Gun.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Aug. 19.—A gang of laborers setting telephone poles for the American Telephone Company, transferred their headquarters on Saturday to down several fine shade trees on a Lake county farm near the Porter county line. The woman of the house was the only person in the house when they came. They entered the house and began to cut down the trees which stood in their way. One of the men, who was named "Buck", brought a shotgun, cocked and leveled it, and ordered them to get up their tools and leave, which they did with considerable alarm.
